

INVITATION FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST HIRING OF INDIVIDUAL CONSULTANTS

Date: 14.06.2022

Group for Legal and Political Studies (GLPS) together with Community Development Fund (CDF) are implementing a project titled: JUST REACT, a three-year project funded by European Commission. JUST REACT aims to promote the role of citizens and the civil society in promoting transparency, accountability, and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms in Kosovo. The project will advocate for an improved access to justice for all citizens, with special emphasis on vulnerable groups, rural communities, victims of violence and discrimination, those prone to abuse, or others that have fewer opportunities for proper access to justice in general. It will also strengthen the dialogue between civil society, citizens and relevant institutions in combating social injustice, and lack of access to justice which is fundamental for further improvement of the rule of law in Kosovo. Finally, JUST REACT aims to increase capacities and prepare young lawyers to engage within the justice system.

For the purpose of implementing the project JUST REACT- Boosting Civic Reaction towards an Improved Access to Justice in Kosovo Community Development Fund invites eligible individuals to apply and express their interest for the services:

Conducting thematic lectures across high schools and universities in Kosovo

Objective of Assignment

The objective of this assignment is to deepen knowledge and increase awareness among citizens across Kosovo, twenty (20) thematic lectures will be delivered across high schools and universities in Kosovo, with special emphasis put at local level and more rural areas.

1. Scope of Work

The Lecturers will support GLPS and CDF in conducting thematic lectures across high schools and universities in Kosovo, with special emphasis put at local level and more rural areas.

To meet objectives, these are the anticipated topics for the lectures with high school students (20 lectures in total):

- Prevention of gender-based violence
- Existing legal framework and mechanisms for the prevention of domestic violence
- Raising civil awareness for equal access to justice
- Prevention and fight against discrimination
- Methods of reporting domestic violence and discrimination: Existing mechanisms

1. Qualification criteria and requirements

The Lecturers for delivering the above mentioned tasks will need to fulfil the following criteria:

- Advanced degree in Law, Social Sciences, Human Rights or other relevant fields.

Funded by the European Union

- Extensive experience, at least five years in completing trainings, workshops or similar activities.
- Demonstrated experience on building capacities, including preparation of relevant training materials
- Excellent interpersonal communication skills, especially on the facilitation of lectures and/or trainings.

2. Deadline and submission of documents:

- Interested candidates are invited to submit the following documents by July 14th, 2022 at 16:00 hrs, at grants@kcdf.org (email address). The documents include:
- Professional CV;
- Expression of interest outlining on how the lecturer will meet the selection criteria and their understanding of ToR, including topics of interest (as listed above);

3. Application procedure and selection criteria

Interested individuals may obtain a detailed Term of Reference upon submitting a request at the following email address grants@kcdf.org. Selection Criteria: Individual consultant selection.

